

St Clare's College

19 August 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

Year 12 Life to the Full Conference

The 'Life to the Full' Conference and Expo is a unique opportunity for year 12 students to gather on campus at the University of Sydney, where they will be immersed in a formative experience that aims to prepare them for life beyond school. World renowned guest presenters will deliver workshops that will inspire, challenge and prepare them for the road ahead. Students will also have the opportunity to connect with relevant Catholic agencies from the Archdiocese of Sydney and engage in discussions and some Q&A time with the panel of presenters.
